~~Sarah's Book Reviews: Sapphire
Battersea by Jacqueline Wilson~~

Sapphire Battersea is the second in a new departure for Wilson. Best known for writing fairly gritty modern day dramas, Wilson has now turned her attention to the historical novel, with a trilogy of books about a young girl called Hetty Feather. Sapphire Battersea is the second book in the series, and this is the unabridged audio book.

Sapphire Battersea is the sequel of Hetty Feather and the second book in the series about the fiery foundling girl by Jacqueline Wilson. I really adore this series, especially this book. Hetty Feather has just found her mother, but unfortunately she can't spend much time with her for she has to leave the foundling hospital and go work as a housemaid in a wealthy household.

Wilson and illustrated by Nick Sharratt, the Hetty Feather books are brilliant for older children, who will enjoy reading the stories which are written in the style of a journal. We love the Victorian setting and the feisty but fragile heroines, from Hetty herself to hard-up Clover Moon and sensitive Rose Rivers.
